VISION KEY TO RICHES

CURTAIN BRACKET THE RESULT OF A DREAM.

Pennsylvania Woman Sees Household Device While Asleep, and Idea Has Been Successfully Carried Out.

Wilkesbarre, Pa.—A midsummer night's dream, over four years ago, furnished Mrs. Kate M. Dymond, of Moosic with the inspiration which later enabled her to perfect a curtain bracket. Recently she received complete patents for the device, and it promises to become one of the most valuable curtain attachments now known to the public.

Mrs. Dymond makes no pretense at being a mechanic, though her skill along such lines is everywhere recognized by her acquaintances. She is the wife of a former merchant of Moosic and a neat housekeeper. The necessity of something to properly secure a curtain led her to think about it just as she was going to sleep, and the dream later gave her the idea.

The scene was in the front room downstairs. She was putting up shades and curtains. In hanging them she noticed that the small metal brackets that are tacked one on each side of the windows were different than the ordinary ones, in that they extended out about two inches further, with a hole in the ends. A three-eighth-inch brass rod ran across and the curtains hung gracefully from it. The shade was held by the same bracket. That was the dream.

When she awoke in the morning the dream was the first thought which came to her mind. She did not say anything to her husband, but when he had gone to look after some business she took a pencil and paper and drew on it the best she knew how a design of the bracket that she saw in the dream. Then from a pile of rubbish in the backyard she took a piece of old stovepipe. With an old pair of scissors she finally managed to cut a bracket like the pattern she made from the paper. By the time her husband came home she had the model complete.

After thinking it over for a couple of weeks they decided to apply for a patent. The patent was finally granted. A thousand pairs of the brackets were manufactured for distribution, but they did not exactly suit, and nothing further was done with them until recently. Meanwhile Mrs. Dymond has had a number of offers from various corporations who wanted to buy the patent rights outright. One firm offered her $5,000. The erection of a plant in the borough of Moosic was then contemplated, but the capital required was a little more than the Dymonds could afford, and it was decided to have the brackets manufactured and placed on the market at a royalty.

PAUPER DANCED WITH KING

Beauty Who Was Edward VII.'s Partner a Match Vender—Dies in Atlanta, Ga.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Romena Peyton, who danced with the prince of Wales, now King Edward VII., at the historic ball given in his honor in New York, when he visited America, is dead, after spending the last years of her life as a match woman on the streets of Atlanta.

Miss Peyton was one of the Peytons of Virginia, descendant of John Randolph, of Roanoke. Her father went from Virginia to South Carolina when a boy, and was sent to the United States senate by his adopted state. At the time of the prince's visit Miss Peyton was in her day of beauty, and was famous throughout the United States as "The South Carolina Flower."

A New York matron invited her to New York to attend the festivities in honor of the prince. At the ball the prince noticed the South Carolina girl, and asked who she was. On being told that she was Miss Peyton, he requested a dance, which was granted.

For many a day thereafter the name of Miss Romena Peyton was on every lip, for the newspapers of the world were full of accounts of the prince inviting her to dance with him, and her wonderful beauty.

But fortune was unkind to Miss Romena. All her family died, and she was left penniless. She came to Atlanta quietly, without ostentation, and met her fate with a serene smile.

NO RACE SUICIDE THERE.

The Town of Tompkins, N. Y., Reports 18 Deaths, 10 Marriages and 44 Births—No Divorces.

Middletown, N. Y.—The town of Tompkins, Delaware county, respectfully calls the attention of President Roosevelt to its report of the vital statistics for the year 1905, which shows that while there were eighteen deaths and ten marriages the number of births rose to 44. The town is inhabited by well to do farmers and there is no race suicide there. Almost every family numbers from a half dozen to fifteen persons, and the stalwart sons and daughters are sticking to the farm, marrying and raising large families.

The inhabitants of Tompkins also point with pride to the fact that there have been no divorce scandals in their town and all live in peace and amity toward one another.

The Yellow Fever Germ

has recently been discovered. It bears a close resemblance to the malaria germ. To free the system from disease germs, the most effective remedy is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed to cure all diseases due to malaria poison and constipation. 25c, at R. C. Stockton's Drug Store.

A man should never be ashamed to admit that he has been in the wrong; it is but saying: "I am wiser today than yesterday."

A Woman's Martyrdom

is too often her own fault, simply because she won't take sufficient trouble to try a medicine that so many thousands of women enthusiastically recommend, viz: Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. This bland, soothing, curative medicine, regulates disordered functions of stomach liver, bowels, etc., and soon restores sick women to perfect health Try it. Sold by Perry & Thomas, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails

For Thin Babies

Fat is of great account to a baby; that is why babies are fat. If your baby is scrawny, Scott's Emulsion is what he wants. The healthy baby stores as fat what it does not need immediately for bone and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich; their fat is laid up for time of need. They are happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every ungentle touch. They delight in Scott's Emulsion. It is as sweet as wholesome to them.

KENTUCKY GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

State Capitol Commission and Legislative Committees Meet.

Frankfort, Jan. 30.—The state capitol commission and the senate and house committee on public buildings met jointly and agreed unanimously to draft a bill appropriating $250,000 to substitute marble for stone inside the new statehouse, to substitute the terra cotta for copper in the dome and to wire and pipe the building for light and heat. The bill will be introduced at once and pressed to a vote. The house committee on appropriations agreed to report in favor of an appropriation of $25,000 for the Hopkinsville asylum and $15,000 for the deaf and dumb school at Danville. It also agreed to report favorably a bill to increase the salary of the governor's private secretary from $1,200 to $1,800 per year. Senator Spence's resolution to pay the expenses of the penitentiary committee in visiting Eddyville prison, amounting to $237, was adopted. The Allen bill giving union depot companies the same power to condemn lands and property that railroads have was passed. The Allen bill authorizing second class cities by a two-thirds vote to levy a tax to erect school buildings not to exceed $150,000 in cost was passed unanimously. The bill appropriating $12,500 for a new laundry building at the Lexington asylum was passed unanimously.

CITED FOR CONTEMPT.

From a Convent the Mother, Who Is Divorced, Took Her Child.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Frank Corbin, the divorced wife of Contractor Frank Corbin, was cited to appear and show cause why she should not be in contempt of court. Mrs. Corbin is charged with spiriting her daughter away from Cardome convent, at Georgetown, after the child had been placed there by order of the court, where both parents should have the right to visit her at intervals. An order was issued directing Mrs. Corbin to produce the daughter in court.

PROTECTION FOR GAME.

Agricultural Department Shows the Need of Action to Prevent Extinction of Animals.

Washington.—The thorough restocking of game covers is urged in a report issued by the department of agriculture in a report on "game conditions in January."

"Now that the hunting season is practically over," the report says, "the biological survey suggests that efforts be directed toward insuring more effective protection of game and an adequate supply for the future. Owing to the nonmigratory character of quail and the consequent depletion of various localities where hunting has been excessive or the birds have been killed off by the severity of the past two winters, restocking is frequently necessary, but the demand for live birds for this purpose far exceeds the available supply.

"The difficulty is augmented by the fact that southern birds are scarcely hardy enough to stand northern winters, and hence it is difficult for northern states to secure birds suited to the climate.

"Perceiving that absence of food and shelter is the principal cause of mortality, state officials, game associations and many private individuals have united in attempting to make good these deficiencies. Grain and other food have been distributed freely and systematically after heavy snowfalls, when the usual food is covered, and suitable shelter has been provided.

"Much activity prevailed last year in Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina and West Virginia. Such measures are needed to preserve the quail from possible ultimate extinction."

GAME SEASON IN MAINE.

More Deer Shot in the State Last Fall Than Ever Before in Its History.

Bar Harbor, Me.—The report of the fish and game commissioners for the state of Maine, recently filed with the governor, shows that the game season of 1905 was a record breaking one. The commissioners say that there have been more hunters in the state than ever before and that more moose and deer have been shot.

The record kept by the American Express company at Bangor shows that 4,836 deer, 210 moose and 38 bears have been shipped to various points. Thus far this breaks the record.

Practically all the deer and moose shipped were killed by sportsmen from outside the state, mostly from New York. If every deer that was killed in 1905 could be recorded, the number would come as a shock to most people. It is estimated that perhaps one-third or less of the deer killed are shipped, which would mean that more than 14,000 deer were killed in Maine last fall.

This season the hunting conditions were very favorable, the weather was good and the game plentiful. Then, of course, the general prosperity of the country has something to do with it. The greater part of those who come to Maine to hunt are men of moderately well to do positions, who prefer to spend their brief vacation in the woods. Facilities for getting into the woods at a nominal expense are better than ever before.

AID FOR THE TENDERFOOT

Cowboy Kindergarten in Oklahoma for Eastern Boys Who Would Rough It.

Guthrie, Ok.—J. C. Miller, manager of the 101 ranch, says that they are making great preparation to handle the continuous performance "kindergarten" next summer for the benefit of the Eastern youths who want to know what life on a big ranch is really like. According to the present plans they expect to take care of about 400 of them in four months' time, 100 a month.

"We will furnish them a good mount and a blanket," said Mr. Miller, "and put them out in camps along the river some place. Let them sleep out doors, eat out of the tail end of a wagon, and live the regular cowboy life, but of course, without much of the work of it. We'll send some of the cowboys that are pretty good fellows—good story tellers and all that, over to take care of them, and have a cattle round-up once in a while for their benefit."

Flock of Gulls Gorged.

A Nanaimo, Wash., fisherman had a unique experience with a flock of gulls several evenings ago. He reached Nanaimo in an open boat containing two tons of herring. While uptown the sea gulls took possession of the boat. On his return all but 60 flew away. This number had so gorged themselves that they could not fly, but hopped about in a state of helplessness. The fisherman finally climbed into the boat and lifted them overboard. They were able to swim with an effort and most of them went ashore to recover from the effects of their feast.

Flying Squirrel in Chimney.

A flying squirrel recently came down the chimney, a la Santa Claus, at William C. Leavitt's home in Norway, R. I. He got into the soot on his passage down and got through the flue into the room. He looked black, and at first was called a black squirrel. He was a rare looking animal. He did not appear to be much frightened and was easily caught.

OUR ROADS IN LEAD.

AMERICA IS FOREMOST IN THE WORLD'S RAILWAYS.

This Country Owns 211,074 of World's Total Mileage of 543,000—Bureau of Statistics Reports Uncle Sam Ahead.

Washington.—The United States leads the world, both in the present mileage and the recent growth of its railways. This is shown in a report on "The Transportation Routes and Systems of the World," issued by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor.

It points out that of the total railway mileage of the world, aggregating in 1904 543,000 miles, there were 211,074 miles in the United States, 35,323 miles in European Russia, 32,967 miles in Germany, 28,102 in France, 26,950 in India, 24,120 in Austria-Hungary, 22,634 in the united kingdom, 19,611 in Canada, 15,560 in Africa, 14,113 in Australia, 11,559 in Argentina, 10,356 in Mexico, 9,961 in Italy, 9,368 in Brazil, 7,697 in Sweden, 7,322 in Siberia, Manchuria and the other former Asiatic possessions of Russia, 4,495 in Japan and 1,176 in China.

Growth of the railways in the United States has been very rapid. Beginning in 1835 with 1,000 miles, the number steadily grew and in the decade 1865 to 1875 it doubled and then rapidly came up to the present number, which represents an outlay of $11,630,000,000 out of an aggregate cost of $37,000,000,000 for the entire world.

The total tonnage of vessels flying the American flag increased from 5,212,001 tons in 1855 to 6,456,543 tons in 1905. This increase is due to the increase in the tonnage of vessels engaged in the coastwise trade. The tonnage of vessels engaged in the foreign trade fell from 2,348,358 in 1855 to 943,750 tons in 1905.

Freight rates on both land and sea have decreased. The rate per bushel of wheat from New York to Liverpool was about ten cents in 1873 and about one cent in 1905. The amount of passengers and freight transported has increased considerably. During the last year the railways transported 719,654,951 passengers and 1,300,000,000 tons of freight. In 1885 the number of passengers carried was 351,427,688 and freight 437,000,000 tons.

CAT FOUND ITS WAY HOME.

South Dakota Feline is Swept by Flood But Finally Reaches Warmth and Comfort.

Sioux Falls, S. D.—Not even a flood, in which several lives were lost and property to the value of many thousands of dollars was carried away, can destroy the family cat and prevent it from coming back.

This was illustrated by the adventure of a cat belonging to the family of John Barkley, a resident of Fort Pierre, situated at the junction of the Bad and Missouri rivers in central South Dakota. The greater part of the residence district of the town was swept away by a flood last July, the flood being caused by a cloudburst up the Bad river.

Among the buildings carried away was the home of Barkley. In the house at the time was the family cat, a big, tiger-striped animal known as Tabby. Nothing was seen or heard of the cat until a day or two ago, when it calmly walked into the new home which Barkley had erected and took its place by one of the stoves.

Barkley expresses the opinion that the cat at the time of the flood was carried by the swift current directly across to an island opposite the mouth of Bad river, where it lived on rabbits and other small game until it discovered that crossing the Missouri river on the ice was possible, when it ventured to the main land and found its way to the Barkley home.

BUG STOPS DIVORCE SUIT.

Queer Defense Put Up by Husband Changes Mind of Wife and the Couple Are Living Happily.

Beaumont, Tex.—In the suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Anna Orren, of Parish, against her husband on the ground of non-support of herself and child, the husband answered the complaint in defense and declared that "the alleged non or insufficient support, if any, is from an act of God, whereby the living pestilence of the boll weevil did attack and has destroyed in various seasons his cotton crop, thus for the time charged by the plaintiff reducing him to impoverishment and rendering him powerless against the Divine will to provide support."

Upon being informed of her husband's defense, and he having in the meantime abandoned cotton and gone into truck farming, Mrs. Orren withdrew her suit, and the two are living happily together again on the farm.

Cassie's Hard Luck.

A dispatch from Columbus says Mrs. Chadwick will be compelled to work at the washtub during her stay in the Ohio penitentiary. Here is additional evidence of the fact that woman labors under disadvantages in this world. If the lady who wrecked banks and took the savings of other people for her own use were a man she would no doubt be provided with an easy job in the bookkeeping department.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 7 - - 1906

An appliance has been invented by a German which will do away with much of the rolling of a ship and prevent sea-sickness.

It is siated on pretty good authority that the whole of Fayette county, outside of the city of Lexington, is what is known as "prohibition," except Athens—and Athens is known as "Hell's Half Acre."

The Berea News is a new weekly that has been received at our desk. The paper announces that it is independent and is published by the Berea News and Publishing Company. If the News keeps up with the splendid appearance of its first issue we predict for it much success.

The other day in Cincinnati, a Mrs. Sweet became soured on Mr. Sweet. She gathered three little Sweets together and some of the household plunder and loaded them in a wagon and started for Kentucky. She had not gone far when old man Sweet melted and ran over to Covington and invoked the aid of the Police. When Mrs. Sweet reached Erlanger she was apprehended and the good ladies of that vicinity implored her to return to her husband and forget the past. Under these pleadings she melted, and so consented, and now all is serene in that household.

Another Congressman will soon be added to Uncle Sam's pay roll. Last Thursday the Senate passed a bill providing for the election of a Delegate to Congress from Alaska. But why discriminate? Why not pass a like bill providing for the election of a Delegate to Congress from the Philippine Islands? Surely, the Filipinos, who inhabit the Pacific Isle, are as much entitled to representative government as the Esquimauxs, who inhabit the Arctic regions. Uncle Sam should accord all his peoples the same treatment and make no distinction in geographical locations.

It seems that Jesse Alverson, Lincoln county's Representative in the Legislature, is not contented with the efforts he contributed toward the defeat of Hon. R. W. Miller for speaker ship of the lower house, but must oppose all honors that the members of that body may desire to show Mr. Miller. His latest spasm, however should convince the representative, from Lincoln that Madison has a man in the Legisture whose ability and knowledge of law are recognized by that body of law makers, who will not stoop to small things in order to carry out a little spite work. Mr. Alverson's desire to defeat the will of the Legisture in sending Mr. Miller as a delegate to represent the house in the Divorce congress, which meets in Washington, and his resolution authorizing the speaker to appoint a delegate to that meeting did not last as long as "Pat staid in the army.,,

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court convened yesterday with Judge J. M. Benton, Commonwealth's Attorney Ben. A. Crutcher, and County Attorney R. Harris Crooke present. The morning session was taken up in selecting and instructing the grand jury. In his instructions to the jury Judge Benton spoke of the efforts of Mayor C. E. Woods to have all laws enforced in the city, and to eradicate lawlessness, and that he heartily endorsed the stand taken by the Mayor. He referred to the fact that when laws were violated they become known as blue laws. In this connection Judge Benton read extracts from a speech delivered in Covington by Gov. Folk, of Missouri, in which he stated that the "laws are all right, but the hearts of the people are wrong when they break the law, and that every law is a blue law provided man desired to break it."

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury: M. F. Arbuckle, Foreman, Joe Deatherage, Sandford Oldham, Jonah Parke, Oscar Helton, Nathan Cotton, Jr, Jocob S. White, John Haden, John Lackey, W. H West, O. C. McWilliams, T. Jeff Robinson.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The Advantages Offered by Richmond For The State Normal School :-:

Madison County

Madison County is one of the historic counties of Kentucky. Here on the beautiful banks of the Kentucky River was located the old Boonesboro settlement made famous in story and song. Here, the first Legislative Assembly that ever convened on this continent West of the Allegheny Mountains, met.

While Madison County is easily the largest and most populous of the Blue Grass counties (exclusive of county seats), it is located at the foot-hills of the Cumberland Mountains, which are plainly in view from the College Campus. Its people as a whole, are progressive, highly educated, church-going and law-abiding. From its earliest history the county has been noted for the excellence and high standard of its schools, for both sexes. It has always taken a deep interest in the cause of general and higher education, and the people have contributed generously to this end.

For twenty-seven (27) years and until the consolidation of Centre College and Central University in 1901, the latter institution was located here. The Madison Female Institute, which was founded in 1855, is situated at Richmond, and is one of the best schools for girls in the South.

There are several large and prosperous towns in Madison County. It has sixty miles of river front with three U. S. Government Locks and Dams thereon, and it has over three hundred miles of free turnpikes.

Richmond

Richmond, the county seat of Madison county, was founded in 1792, and contains a population of over seven thousand. Its altitude is over one thousand feet above sea level, and being in the Blue Grass, and yet in sight of the distant mountains, it is one of the healthiest points in America. It has three National Banks and one State Bank and Trust Company, all in prosperous condition. It has three weekly and semi-weekly newspapers. It has nine white churches, representing all the leading Christian denominations. It has an excellent system of graded public schools. It has Walters College Institute, which is well attended and prepares young men for admission into the best colleges in the land. It has a handsome Federal Building erected at a cost of over $125.000, wherein Federal Courts for the Eastern District of Kentucky are held.

It boasts of one of the best Water, Gas and Electric Light systems in the State. An artificial reservoir, about two miles from Richmond, Kentucky, covering about forty acres, and being twenty-five feet deep, furnishes the City with an abundant supply of pure water.

It has two commodious, well equipped hospitals for surgery and the treatment of the sick, one being private and the other public, and the gift of one of Madison County's generous sons.

Richmond has a most excellent railroad service, and is easily accessible to all points in Kentucky. It is located on the K. C. Division of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad system, running from Cincinnati with through trains to Florida and to all points South; and is on the L. & A. Railroad, which with its connections, runs from Louisville to Jackson, Kentucky, and it is the terminus of the Rowland Branch of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad. Twenty passenger trains arrive and depart from Richmond daily, making direct connection with the C. & O., the Louisville Southern, the Cincinnati Southern and all other railroads which they cross. It is located geographically near the center of the State, and is almost equi-distant from Cincinnati and Louisville, being four hours ride from each.

The foundations of our great Commonwealth were laid in Madison County, and considering the history behind Richmond, its present position, its geographical location, railroad connections, splendid drainage, and the advantages which her people now freely offer [illegible] state, it is an ideal place for the location of one of the Normal Schools for the better preparation of teachers for the instruction of the youth of Kentucky.

Grounds and Buildings Offered

In 1874 the Curators of Central University, after canvassing the entire Commonwealth of Kentucky, accepted the proposition of the people of Richmond and Madison County as offering the best location in the state for a college of high order, and acquired the present site located within the city limits of Richmond, upon which they proceeded to erect a magnificent educational plant.

During twenty-seven years they made of it a beautiful campus, laid out in walks and drives, and now filled with shade trees and covered with a perfect blue grass sod, containing about 28 acres, and surrounded by a hedge fence. It is situated on the highest land, and is in the best residence section, of the city.

The people of Madison County contributed as a donation to the University $110,000, and considerably more than this amount was expended in the purchase of the land and the erection of buildings and improvements thereon.

Main College Building

The main college building is constructed of brick and stone, being eighty feet long and fifty feet wide, four stories high, and containing one of the largest chapels in the state, with a seating capacity of eight hundred, eleven lecture rooms twenty-five feet by forty feet and fourteen feet high, one of which is arranged for a chemical and another for a physical laboratory, besides work and storage rooms; all supplied with gas and city water.

The original cost of this building was about $60,000 and it is in good repair.

The Dormitory

The Dormitory, known as Memorial Hall, was built in 1882 by contributions from the generous women of Kentucky at a cost of $30,000. It is a brick building three stories high, containing thirty-five rooms, besides a dining-room, thirty-five feet by fifty feet, with kitchen, and all necessary pantries, etc.

It is provided with gas and city water, and a steam heating plant. It will comfortably accommodate one hundred persons.

Gymnasium

This building was erected in 1898, is frame and cost over $5,000. It is equipped with all the modern apparatus, including a running track, all necessary lockers, shower baths, etc., and is heated by furnace.

Athletic Field

The Athletic Field is perfect in its appointment; arranged for base ball, foot ball, with Grand Stand and running track, and upon its historic ground has been witnessed many a battle for athletic supremacy among Kentucky colleges.

Campus

The Campus is bounded on the East by Second Street, on the West by Fourth Street or Lancaster Avenue, and on the North by College Street, and is in splendid condition. The buildings are all in use and good repair, and the grounds are among the most beautiful college grounds in America.

After the consolidation of Central University with Center College in 1901, this property was conveyed to the Trustees of Walters Collegiate Institute of Richmond, Ky., in fee simple, for the use of the people of Madison County for educational purposes, and in consideration and satisfaction of their munificent donations to the location and endowment funds to the University which was then forever lost to them.

The property above described, is well worth the sum of $150,000, and could not, considering building, walks, drives, shade trees, etc., be reproduced for that sum after years of labors, and the Trustees of Walters Collegiate Institute offer it to the Commonwealth of Kentucky, to be used as a Normal School, if the General Assembly of Kentucky will locate such a school at Richmond.

This property is ready for immediate occupancy, and if the State desires it, we cheerfully invite it to take possession of it and use it as a Normal School forever, without charge or price, provided only that a first-class school be maintained thereon.

In conclusion we will say that if any other community in Kentucky will present, all things considered, a better or more generous offer for the location and maintenance of a Normal School than the one above set forth, Richmond will congratulate her successful competitor as well as the taxpayers of the Commonwealth.

Prominent Mason's In Washington

Sir Knights R. R. Burnam and R. C. Stockton attended a meeting of Lafayette Chapter No. 5, Royal Arch Masons which was held in Washington City the 30th of January. The affair was in the form of a reception in honor of the Grand Officers. Our friend John Speed Smith who ranks high in Masonry writes us that the function was one of the most pleasant ever pulled off in the Capitol City. Hon. R. W. Miller, of this city, was to have been the speaker of the evening but was unable to attend. His place, however, was most ably filled by Mr. Burnam. Mr. Smith says:

"To say that he acquitted himself most creditably puts it mildly. He made a most delightful and instructive address on Masonic lines and both pleased and charmed a very large and intelligent audience of distinguished Masons. Bert Stockton was present and added his smiles and graces to the occasion and was, as you see, on dress parade. There was an audience of nearly five hundred and all were entertained and pleased with Burnam's address and I take great pride in the manner he held up the proud name and reputation of old Kentucky and Richmond."

LaGrippe and Pneumonia

Pneumonia often follows LaGrippe but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures la grippe coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Mr G Vacher, of 157 Osgood St, Chicago, writes: "My wife had a severe case of la grippe three years ago, and it left her with a terrible cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50 cent bottle cured her cough entirely." Refuse substitutes. Sold by R. C. Stockton.

W. D. Oldham's Store

DESTROYED BY FIRE. ONE OF RICHMOND'S PRIDES NOW IN ASHES.

About nine-thirty Saturday morning fire broke out in the basement of W. D. Oldham's large dry goods store and had gained considerable headway before being discovered. Almost in an instant the whole interior was in flames and so rapid was its progress that the employes had no time to secure even their wraps, which were in the office department. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been in the furnace room. According to one report, some of the clerks, noticing the store being unusually hot suggested that the furnace be shut off. Upon going down into the basement to do so, it was to discover the whole lower floor in flames, at which time the alarm was turned in. The fire department responded immediately and the valient work they did has been much talked of and praised. However, the fire was of a most stubborn nature and for a while it looked very threatening, and great alarm was felt for the adjoining buildings, the State Bank and Trust Company, on the one side, and the Richmond National on the other. After fighting valiently for an hour or two, without getting any control whatever over the flames, a message was sent to Winchester for aid and as soon as possible the fire department of that city responded, bringing with them one thousand feet of extra hose. Their arrival was sounded by one wild cheer from the great throng assembled on the streets. They went boldly to work and it was a great relief to all to see the angry flames begin to yield. The fire burned until late in the afternoon, although all danger was considered over shortly after noon. Mr. Oldham had just left that morning on the early train for the East, but was telegraphed for and he returned on the midnight train, having gotten no further than Cincinnati. This store was one of the largest in the city and was pointed to with pride by our citizens. At the time of the fire the stock was unusually heavy, as a big part of the spring goods had been opened. The loss is estimated at $65,000, with $31,000 insurance. Nor was Mr. Oldham the only sufferer. The third floor of the building was made up of office rooms. The ones who suffered from the fire were, Dr. T. J. Taylor, $1,000, with no insurance; Recruiting Office, $1,200 fully insured; Dr. J. G. Bosley, $1,000, insurance, $500; Judge H. C. Rice, loss, $500, no insurance; Mrs Ella Farley, loss $2,000, insurance, $500; Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, loss $1,000, no insurance. Mr. Will Tevis, who had a room on the third floor barely escaped with his life, the flames having almost broken through the floor before he was aware of his danger. The adjoining buildings were damaged with smoke and water to a considerable extent. This is the most disastrous fire since Richmond has had the water system, and the blessing of such a system was fully realized when the angry flames were kept confined to the one building. Mr. Oldham has the universal sympathy in his loss and his many friends were eager, upon his return, to extend to him the hand of true fellowship and sympathy. It is gratifying to all to know that he will begin at once to clear away the debris and rebuild. It is his intention to improve over his other store in certain ways and we trust it will not be long until he will be back at his old place. It is probable that he will open up temporarily in the store room formerly occupied by Frasa Brothers.

The citizens of this place are gald to welcome the Bean Bros in their midst

Mrs. H. D. B Forbes will leave next Thursday for Tennessee, where she will join her husband

Miss Susie Tate has been very sick with the grippe.

Capt. Barnett Resigns.

Capt. I. W Barnett, Roadmaster of the L. & A. Railroad has resigned, and will probably retire to his blue grass farm near the good town of Richmond. In these years of rapid changes, fourteen years seems a long time to serve in one place. Capt. Barnett was the first roadmaster of the old R. N. I & B. It was not much of a road then, for if we remember rightly the track stopped about a mile and half this side of Richmond, where an old rail fence crossed the right-of-way. That was fourteen years ago. But he has just sawed on, winter and summer alike through all these years, and along with Capt. Pates, Bob and Joe Harris, Smith and a few more of the faithful, he has helped to make a pretty good railroad. There is not a man on all the line from Beattyville to Versailles, who will not miss the genial countenance and hearty greeting of Capt. Ike Barnett.—Beattyville News.

Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weaknesses, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weaknesses, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard, and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce, the maker of that world-famed remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ills—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in which his treatment fails by reason of the patient's inability to abstain from hard work long enough to be cured. With those suffering from prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion of the uterus or other displacement of the womanly organs, it is very necessary that, in addition to taking his "Favorite Prescription" they abstain from being very much, or for long periods, on their feet. All heavy lifting or straining of any kind should also be avoided. As much out-door air as possible, with moderate, light exercise is also very important. Let the patient observe these rules and the "Favorite Prescription" will do the rest.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

High-Class Wall Papers for 1906

FORE WORD

THE POPULAR DEMAND for individuality in home decorations has prompted us to illustrate the most modern and up-to-date styles in period decorating for the guidance of our patrons who would otherwise be unable to keep in touch with the new treatments now vogue in New York and Chicago

There is scarcely a home nowadays where some of the ideas illustrated cannot be used to advantage in at least one or two rooms in connection with the more conventional styles in regular matched combinations of side wall, ceiling and border thereby insuring a variety of decorations which will not become monotonous

My new samples contain such a large variety of matched combinations and patterns suitable for special purposes that the customer will never be at a loss for combinations suitable for any purpose. Border and paper always same price

W. P. Baxter

It is an old saying "that marriages are made in heaven." According to the divorce records and the large number of old maids and old bachelors on the market, very few of us have any friends up there. We would suggest that you depend not so much on your friends up there, but a little more on your own resources down here.

Fatal Accident on L. & A. Railroad.

One of the most horrible wrecks in the history of the road occurred on the Louisville & Atlantic last Wednesday evening about seven o'clock when Freight engine No. 11 was ditched near Foster's curve, four miles from here, and Engineer Ackers was killed and Fireman John Rupard and Brakeman Cates were very seriously injured. As the train was on a down grade it struck a cow on the track which threw off one of the wheels of the engine. The engineer immediately put on brakes but nothing could prevent the horrible catastrophe which followed. The engine drove on and plunged into a trestle, and dropped into a ravine below. Engineer Ackers was scalded to death, living perhaps an hour in terrible agony. The two injured men were brought to the P. A. C. Infirmary where everything possible is being done to relieve their suffering and save their lives. Of the two, Cates is more seriously injured and his life is almost despaired of. Engineer Ackers was a native of Germany and had just lately returned from a visit to his home land. He had just been promoted to the position of engineer and the fatal run was only his third. He was unmarried. His remains were taken to Undertaker Oldham's and prepared for burial, after which they were removed to Mrs. Warford's, with whom he boarded. His interment took place Friday afternoon.

Will Farm.

Mr. William Farris, who has been day operator and ticket agent at the Southern and C.N.O &T P depot for some time, has resigned and will move to his farm in Madison county. Mr. Farris' leaving will be a source of much regret to the traveling public as he was immensely popular with all. Mr. Farris' home is in Madison county —Danville Advocate.

Little Love Stories

Miss Amanda Todd, daughter of the late Hugh Todd, of Irvine, and Ashley Guy, lumber inspector for the Kentucky River Poplar Company at Frankfort, were married in Lexington last week. The couple had a hard time to get the marriage license, owing to the tender age of the young woman. Although she had a note signed by her mother, Mrs. Mary Todd, it was believed the note was a forgery, and it was necessary to get telephone communication with Mrs. Todd before the license was issued. The bride has many relatives here and in the county.

DEATHS

Miss Emma Jane McCord died at her home in Clark county, on January 22, 1906, aged 20 years. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. Seth M. Todd, of this county, and was a member of the Christian Church. She leaves a mother, one brother and seven sisters to mourn her loss. She was a kind and loving daughter and sister, and when her Master called her to go she said she was ready and willing to go, and asked the family to meet her in Heaven. May God comfort the heart-broken in their sad hours of bereavement.

Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Hugh Park and children over the death of their husband and father, which occurred January 15th. After battling bravely for quite a while with consumption, he was compelled at last to yield to man's last enemy, Death. He was a devoted husband and father and a noble Christian man. He married Miss Seda Babee twenty-one years ago and besides her he leaves four children. The funeral was conducted by Rev. G. W. Shepherd at their home near Red House.

CALL MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Mayor Woods ordered a Call Meeting of the City Council on Monday night at which time the following important business was transacted.

It was decided that the fire department should be fully equipped up to the efficiency of Winchester and other neighboring cities. The recent Oldham fire plainly showed the lack of nozzle hose and so on. Ladders, axes, rubber suits for the men, 1,000 feet of double strength hose with couplings, at 80 cents laid down in Richmond, will be ordered at once. Heretofore, hose of single strength has cost the city more than that sum, resulting in bursting and rotting and rendering dangerous any pressure put upon it. The City has had less than half enough nozzles as was seen last Saturday. It was also decided to install an electric bell striker at the at the fire house, and thus save the services of one man at a critical moment when the horses are being hitched and every moment is precious. At the City Hall a club room is being fitted up for the use of the firemen so as to attract them there and thereby assure from two to six men at at all hours of the night for instant service in case of fire.

In view of the fact that the Winchester Fire Department of thirty men refused to file a bill for their services here at the Oldham fire last Saturday and the loss of a full day's time from their business at home, the Council ordered that they each be paid $5.00 for their work. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad refused to charge the city a cent for hauling the men and hose to Richmond, although it required the attaching of a freight car to the passenger train and the latter had to be backed up five miles to Winchester to get the department to this city.

Dr. Smoot, City Physician, resigned and until his place can be filled, Dr. Dunn will act. Physicians who desire the place made vacant by Dr. Smoot's resignation should hand in their sealed bids to the Mayor naming terms upon which they will accept the position. This closed the business of the called meeting and the Council adjourned.

Royal
Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

In baking powder Royal is the standard, the powder of highest reputation; found by the United States Government tests of greatest strength and purity.

It renders the food more healthful and palatable and is most economical in practical use.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy alum powders because they are "cheap." Yet some of the cheapest made powders are sold to consumers at the highest price.

Housekeepers should stop and think. Is it not better to buy the Royal and take no chances—the powder whose goodness and honesty are never questioned?

Is it economy to spoil your digestion by an alum-phosphate or other adultered powder to save a few pennies?

Card From W. D. Oldham, Proprietor of "Busy Bee Cash Store."

TO THE PUBLIC:—I want to thank everybody who had any part in fighting the fire at my store last Saturday, the members of the fire department, merchants, and citizens, white and black. I was not here to witness the great destruction wrought by the flames, but I understand from the spectators that there was never a fiercer or more dangerous conflagration in our midst. Thanks to God it did not spread to others rendering them houseless as I am. In such an hour as this I am unable to voice my feelings of gratitude for the loyalty of friends for the heroic work of all even my business competitors, I understand, having fought the fire side by side with the firemen.

I will open by March 1 at the McCreary storeroom, next to the Henderson House, with an entirely new stock of goods. In the meantime I shall proceed to rebuild even a better store on the site now covered with the ruins of twenty years of toil and industry.

OBITUARY.

"'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
Where love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
Must we forever part."

On January 31, 1906, at 2 o'clock, there passed into the great beyond Barbia Gilbert, wife of H. P. Gilbert. Her prayer was answered as we often heard her pray during her long suffering. "Take me, Jesus, take me now." So peacefully, with a heavenly smile she waved that feeble hand farewell husband, farewell children, and sank into that sleep that knows no awakening.

"I know full well those dear old hands will palms of victory bear,
Where chrystal streams through endless years,
Flow o'er golden sands,
And where the old grow young again,
I'll clasp that dear one's hand.

Nothing was left undone that could have been done by earthly hands to relieve her suffering by the best doctors, husband, five dutiful daughters and two brave sons, besides hosts of attentive and sympathizing friends, but nothing could reach the vital spot. The Great Physician has taken her on high, where there is no suffering, where she donned the garment of white robed angels and welcomed in that heavenly home by the Savior himself and those gone before. She was peacefully laid to rest in the beautiful city of the dead at Richmond with a grave covered with flowers. May we all be impressed with her life and death and live so we may die as triumphantly as she, is the prayer of a sympathizing friend. *

A Pleasant Gathering of Newspaper Men

Richmond was honored last Friday by the presence of quite a number of Kentucky's best known newspaper men. The occasion was the fourth quarterly meeting of the Eighth District Publishers' League. This is an organization which had its birth at the mid summer meeting of the Kentucky Press Association at Crab Orchard last summer, and is an auxiliary to that organization. The meeting here last Friday was a pleasant one from start to finish. Although belated several hours, the distinguished guests were not lacking in enthusiasm over the meeting together of so many of "the boys." After being driven to the Glyndon and partaking of lunch, the party was driven over town and to the College Campus that they might view the buildings and grounds of Richmond's proposed donation towards the establishment of the State Normal School here.

At the conclusion of the drive, the members of the League, together with several representatives from some of the country's largest printer's supply houses, adjourned for a business session in the Elks' rooms. The meeting was of special interest from a business standpoint and much good will result from it. At nine o'clock the League and a number of invited guests, including some of the fair sex, assembled at the Masonic Temple to enjoy a banquet given in honor of the visitors. The menu, which consisted of five delicious courses, was served by Mrs. M. M. Miller and prepared as can only an expert Kentucky cook prepare such a spread. The following is the program of toasts as delivered at the conclusion of the banquet. In the absence of Hon. R. W. Miller, who was to have been toast master, the place was most admirably filled by Mayor C. E. Woods, who introduced each speaker in a manner highly complimentary to all concerned.

Welcome by Local Press.......... T. H. Pickels
Toast—"The Editorial We"..........
Hon. Lew. B. Brown, of Harrodsburg
Toast—"The Pulpit and the Press"..........
Rev. Hugh McLellan
Toast—"Lawyers May Plead for Either Side; the Editors for but One"
Hon. J. A. Sullivan
Toast—"Tell the Truth, Boys, and Win Fame as I Have"
Hon. John D. Wakefild, of Louisville
'Greetings from the Missing...... A. D. Miller
Toast—"The Iron is Hot—Strike"..........
Hon. R J. McBride, Editor Louisville Times

Quite a number were on the program but were absent, among whom was Editor Louis Landrum, of Lancaster, who has been styled "The Spoiled Darling of the Kentucky Press." On account of illness in his family he had to return home before the banquet, much to the regret of all present. Other absent ones, who were expected to add to the enjoyment, were: Mr. W. C. Barrickman, of Taylorsville, and Mr. B. L. Banks, President of our Commercial Club. At one o'clock the banquet hall was deserted and the happy crowd bound by the ties of fraternal friendship, dispersed to meet in Danville the first Saturday in May.

"Cousin" Pleas O. K.

A special telegram sent from this city last week to a daily paper, stated that our Sheriff, "Cousin" Pleas Broaddus, while attempting to arrest a desperate character, received a broken nose and let the object of his pursuit escape. The facts are "Cousin" Pleas was out in search of Adam Huguely, colored, who is wanted on a charge of malicious shooting but who had vacated his accustomed haunts before the Sheriff reached his old rendezvous. In going through some thickly wooded country "Cousin" Pleas' nose came in contact with a stick of timber and slightly disfigured our popular Sheriff, but did not brake the member, nor necessitate his absence from business.

Council Proceedings.

The City Council met in regular monthly session last Thursday night and proceeded to business in the regular order, namely, reading of minutes, reports, and so on.

One important question that came up before the body was the investigation by the Mayor as to whether or not it was legal for the Police Judge to hire a Deputy Clerk, paid out of the City Treasury. The Mayor asked the City Attorney's opinion. Mr. Collins replied that in his judgment the Police Judge had no right to do this, whereupon Mr. Woods notified Judge Greenleaf that he would not "O. K." any voucher for salary for his clerk. Judge Greenleaf rose and notified the Mayor that he would fight such a ruling and take an appeal on same. The Mayor also stated that the salaries paid to the Health Board were illegal and would be stopped. A petition from the business men on Second Street was presented asking for relief from the overflow of water from the cellar of the Register office. Mr. W. R. Letcher, Jr. presented a petition asking that High Street be extended from its present limits through to Main street. This petition met with much favor and was referred to the committee for further investigation. Mr. Murray Smith appeared before the Council and asked that Owen Walker, colored be rebated $50, representing two years' license for running pool tables. The argument was made in view of the fact that the other pool tables in town pay no license and there is no law to compel such, since chips, and not money, are used. It was ordered on the proper proof of payment that walker be rebated this tax. An agent representing an oil sprinkler house appeared before the committee, desiring to sell such a machine to the city, offering to pay freight on same to this city, and also to take machine back in case it failed to work as advertised. The matter was referred to the Street Committee who were advised to purchase sprinkler if found practical and reasonable in price. Mr. James H. Allman was allowed a claim of $29 for acting as City Clerk during the absence Clerk White. The Council decided to put both gas and electric light in the new City Hall. Mayor Woods and Councilman Maupin were appointed a committee to purchase a new patrol wagon. Mr. Veatch in behalf of the Telephone Company, appeared to answer certain questions concerning telephone rates, service, etc., complaints of which had been made to the Mayor. No accusers, however, were present, so Mr. Veatch was relieved from taking the stand. Mr. C. C. Wallace, representing the Odd Fellows' Lodge expressed their willingness to do what was necessary in the opinion of the Council to make the Grand Opera House safe in case of fire. This matter was likewise referred to the proper committee. Mr. Lee Burton was made night watchman at the Fire Department at a salary of $20 per month. One of the important matters before the Council was the dismissal of Mr. W. A. Garland, the expert accountant, who has been here for several weeks making a thorough investigation of the City's records and their financial condition. His dismissal was unexpected and has caused considerable comment. He was asked how much the city owed him and he replied that up to date the city owed him $550 50. In view of the fact that it would take about three more weeks to finish up, he was notified to drop his work, as it was considered too expensive. This motion was made by Councilman Covington, second by Mr. Maupin. As it stands only a partial, instead of a complete report, can be made, and it is regretted that he was unable to finish up this work, which undoubtedly was a needed one. Mr. Anse Harris publicly agreed to observe the Sunday closing law. The Mayor stated that Mr. Harris had been convicted twice of selling liquor on Sunday and fined in both cases. This was enough to take away his license, but upon his earnest appeal and promise not to repeat the offense again, he was pardoned.

The Mayor then read the following paper to the audience.

TO THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL, JAN. 30, '06.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Richmond, for several years past engaged in the saloon business here, desire to file this statement and appeal to the Mayor and City Council of Richmond:

First, we have been guilty and confess the same, of having violated the Sunday closing Statutes of Kentucky and Ordinances of the city.

Second, we have no plea to offer in extenuation of our offenses, and merely throw ourselves upon the mercy of the Mayor and Council to grant us one more extension of time, wherein we solemnly pledge ourselves, individually and as a firm to do the several following things:

That we will absolutely comply with all laws governing the liquor traffic in this city.

That we will not, by any practice or deception, evade our duty so as to bring the slightest shadow of doubt upon the sincerity of our present pledges.

We will on the contrary, exert such an effort to merit a continuance of the indulgences we now ask, as to deter others from breaking the law if in our power so to do.

We recognize and acknowledge the existence of a public sentiment here emphatically opposed to the further violation of the laws controlling the sale of liquor, and we bind ourselves to respect that sentiment, the disregard of which will sooner or later lead to public antagonism of all forms of the liquor traffic here.

In further testimony of our sincerity of repentance for past violations and as a guarantee of good faith, we promise never to ask further indulgence if we again are guilty of offenses against the law, but shall agree to make no remonstrance against the reinstatement of the present changes, of which we confess guilt as sufficient cause for the instant revocation of our license.

Signed;
A. R. HARRIS,
J. J. POWERS.

Witness: C. E. WOODS, Mayor.

Mr Harris attested his signature, and the subject was dropped. Mr. Covington asked that his vote be recorded against extending this clemency.

Argument.

IN THE BEREA COLLEGE CASE HEARD HERE FRIDAY.

The full bench of the Kentucky Court of Appeals sat last Saturday for the hearing of argument of counsel in the noted case of the Berea College against the commonwealth, coeducation of the races, on appeal from judgment of the Madison Circuit Court. The Hon. John G. Carlisle, of New York; Senator Curtis F. Burnam; of this county, and Guy W. Mallon, of Cincinnati, appearing for appellant college, and Attorney General Hayes made argument for the commonwealth.

The speeches of the attorneys were forceful and were heard by many lawyers from over the State, members of the General Assembly, and the citizens of Frankfort, who crowded the courtroom. The case was submitted following the close of the argument, and decision of the court will shortly be announced. Whatever it may be, the case will be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Wheat Crop.

the wheat crop is looking splendid. The plant has been growing all winter and is finely rooted. It was begining to suffer from the dry weather but the snow which fell Sunday night will remove all trouble from that source. If nothing happens to it from now on the harvest will be a bountiful one.

MAINSPRING OF LIFE.

No One Can be Strong With a Weak Stomach.

B. L. Middelton Tells How it May be Strengthened.

The stomach is the mainspring of life. When it is strong and acts perfectly, then the whole system is right, assimilation is perfect, and body and brain are thoroughly nourished.

One may perhaps get temporary relief from stomach troubles by using pepsin, or some other digestant, but this treatment has no curative effect. It does not reach the seat of the trouble and remove the cause.

How much better to use Mi-o-na, which restores lost functions of the whole digestive system, revives flagging nutrition, and aids in the assimilation of food.

Mi-o-na is a pleasant remedy to use, and benefit is seen from almost the first day's treatment. It restores the torpid glands and stimulates the natural digestive secretions. It checks fermentation, stops germ growth, soothes inflammation, and cures all troubles, such as headaches, backaches, rheumatic pains, furred tongue, sleeplessness, nervousness, and general debility, which are caused by imperfect digestion.

It is the only rem[illegible] formly successful in t[illegible] ach diseases that B. [illegible] willing to give a guarantee with every 50 cent box of Mi-o-na tablets that the remedy will cost nothing unless it cures. He has so much faith in Mi-o-na that he is willing to take all the risk.

Little Love Stories.

The Manse at Kirksville was the scene of a pretty wedding last Wednesday where Mr R. I. Gillen and Miss Myrtie Hays, both of Paint Lick were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. B. Ratchford.

Licence were issued Monday to Mr. F. M. Jones and Miss Eva R. Baker, both of Dreyfus, this county. Their wedding will occur next week at the bride's home.

Mr. Joseph Alcorn and Mrs. Mary C. Todd, of Dreyfus, were united in marriage last Saturday at the bride's home.

Succesful Operation.

Mrs. J. S. C. Bronaugh, who went to Richmond last week to undergo an operation, stood the shock splendidly and is doing nicely. The tumor on the temple was successfully removed and was quite a delicate operation. She was on the operating table a little over an hour and one or two other simple operations were performed at the same time. Her many friends hope to have her at home soon and fully restored to health.—Jessamine Journal.

WON A BIG VICTORY.

National Banks Exempt From Taxation on Government Bonds.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 1.—The Kentucky National banks won a big victory in the court of appeals and it will likely result in a law being passed by the legislature that will provide a uniform way to tax the shares of both state and national banks. The case decided was the Marion National bank vs. Barton, sheriff, and the question was whether in fixing the value of the shares of stock in the bank for taxation the bank has the right to have deducted the amount of its government bonds from the amount of its shares of stock. The state banks are assessed for franchise taxation but the state supreme court has decided that national banks can only be assessed on the value of their shares of stock. The national banks claimed that in arriving at the franchise value of the state banks the board allowed the state banks to deduct securities, which was discrimination, and refused to pay taxes on their shares of stock unless their government bonds were also deducted.

COWAN CREEK FARMER.

The Hand of Fate Seems To Hover Over His Home.

Sergent, Ky., Feb. 1.—It looks as though the hand of fate was hanging over the family of Henry C. Adams, a Cowan Creek farmer. A month ago his home was burned during the illness of his wife. So great was her worry that it caused her death. Tuesday night Mr. Adams' four-year-old daughter was burned to death by her clothing catching on fire from an open grate. Since the death of his wife Adams has lost three fine horses and several head of cattle.

COW WRECKS A TRAIN.

Engineer Killed and Fireman and Head Brakeman Fatally Hurt.

Richmond, Ky., Feb. 1.—West-bound Louisville & Atlantic freight train No. 22, which left Richmond, was wrecked at Fosters Station, five miles west of here. Engineer Paul Ackers was instantly killed. Fireman John Ruhard and head Brakeman Seth Cates were both fatally injured. The wreck was caused by striking a cow.

Killed By His Son-in-Law.

London, Ky., Feb. 1.—Jas. Adkins was shot and instantly killed at Corbin by his son-in-law, whose name can not be learned. Adkins, it is reported, was drunk and chased his son-in-law with a knife, when the young man seized a shotgun and fired.

Wants the Home Inspected.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 1.—Col. Bennett H. Young, president of the Kentucky Confederate home, has sent a telegram to Lieut. Gov. W. P. Thorne, requesting him to appoint a committee at once to investigate the management of the home.

Chief of Police Deputy Dead.

Newport, Ky., Feb. 1.—Chief of Police Harry H. Deputy died at his home, 123 East Fifth street. He was unconscious for 18 hours before the end, and death was so peaceful that those around his bedside scarcely knew that he was no more.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 1.—Gov. Beck[illegible] Wedne[illegible]ng made a re[illegible] of Louisiana [illegible] in Calloway co[illegible] the charge of a double [illegible]mitted ten years ago.

Shot His Wife and Himself.

Sparta, Ky., Feb. 1.—William Taylor, aged 22, shot and instantly killed his wife and probably fatally wounded himself at the home of his father-in-law, Morton Baker. Taylor has been married since November 1.

Wealthy Farmer Expires.

Central City, Ky., Feb. 1.—Andrew Coffmann, a well-known, wealthy, retired farmer of McLean county, died suddenly at his home in this city of cardiac asthma and heart trouble at the advanced age of 75 years.

His Second Trial.

Williamsburg, Ky., Feb. 1.—The second trial of Floyd Helton, charged with the murder of William and Flem Bray, in Jellico, in August, 1904, began Wednesday. He was sentenced to hang in his first trial.

Lamp Explodes; Girl Hurt.

Whitesburg, Ky., Feb. 1.—Donie, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. H. C. Adonis, living two miles south of here, was seriously if not fatally burned by the explosion of a lamp which she was holding at the time.

Seeks To Recover Taxes.

London, Ky., Feb. 1.—State Revenue Agent J. F. Hawn filed five suits here seeking to recover tax for the state on $165,000 worth of property since 1902. Suits against other corporations will be filed.

Nabs King of Moonshiners.

Campbellsville, Ky., Feb. 1.—Deputy United States Marshal Reynolds and his party captured Kirk Bell, who was called the king of the moonshiners, his brother Henry and William Akerage.

Mayor Bishop Stricken.

Lancaster, Ky., Feb. 1.—Ed Bishop, a prominent dry goods man, lies critically ill, having been paralyzed. He was sworn in as mayor the first of the month.

True friendship asks for no rash promises, demands no foolish vows. is strongest in absence and most loyal when needed.

Now and Then

Some thorough and careful physician invents, in his practice, some special medicine, that proves so universally successful whenever prescribed, that proceeds to place it before the public to be reached through the newspapers. This is the history of Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. For years, prescribed by Dr W. B Caldwell for constipation, and all disorders of liver, stomach, add bowels, it was at last manufactured on a large scale, and is now the most successful medicine in the world for these diseases A pure, scientific tonic, laxative, syrup; pleasant to take and perfect in results Try it. Sold by Perry & Thomas, at 50c and $1 00. Money back if it fails.

Twice Told Tales

Some tales never lose in the telling and the tale of good that Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin will and does do, to all poor, dyspeptic, bilious sufferers, is one of them. It positively relieves and cures all forms of indigestion, starts up the languid liver, regulates the constipated bowels, and restores the entire system to a perfect condition of health. Try it. Sold by Perry & Thomas. at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

Failed

All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles than Foley's Honey and Tar It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. J N. Patterson, Nashua, Iowa, writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two thirds of a bottle cured me I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold by R C. Stockton

To be conscious that you are ignorant is a great step towards knowledge.

Beware of passion. Every outbreak of anger shortens life a certain degree.

Quit no opportunity of doing good, and you will find no opportunity for doing ill.

Two things ought to be the object of our fears, the envy of friends and the hatred of enemies.

THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

The House of Representatives Passed the Croan Dog Tax Bill.

Frankfort, Jan. 31.—The senate committee on municipalities decided to report favorably the following four of Senator Spence's bills: Fixing salary of city jailer, allowing a deputy city clerk, charging license to Cincinnati wagons and other vehicles, and the bill providing that if the city council fails any year to pass a tax levy ordinance, the tax rate shall remain the same as the year before. The Eaton bill, providing that where a man marries the girl he seduced he must live with her three years, was passed with an amendment allowing him to leave her if he has a statutory ground for divorce.

The house passed the Croan dog tax bill, an exact copy of the dog tax bill passed by the senate last week. The contest committee in Wehle-Hagan case, from Louisville, completed its report and unanimously agreed that Hagan (dem.) shall retain his seat. The house committee on constitutional amendments reported favorably on the Bourne bill proposing an amendment to the constitution making the payment of poll tax one of the qualifications of a voter. The Overstreet bill, to regulate the cost of draining land, was passed—yeas 79, nays 0.

MOONSHINER KILLED.

Another Mortally Wounded in a Battle With the Marshals.

Sergent, Ky., Jan. 31.—As a party of six United States marshals were entering a lonely ravine in the flats of the Cumberland mountains, on Lower Elkhorn creek, where a still has been located, the moonshiners opened fire upon the officers, and a heated battle followed. Not until the ammunition of the moonshiners had been exhausted did they cease firing. Even when their leader, Henry Adams, known as "Bad Hen," was shot down, they unceasingly kept up the fire. However, when hostilities ceased the officers found Henry Adams shot dead, a man named Hall mortally wounded, and, from trails of blood leading into the mountain, it is known that one or more others were wounded. Adams served a seven-year term in the Kentucky penitentiary. He was in the recent engagement on Lower Elkhorn in which Alvin Centers was killed.

IN A RAILWAY CRASH.

The Conductor Pinioned and Cooked To Death.

Preston, Ky., Jan. 31.—In a freight wreck on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, Capt. Pete Miller, the conductor, was burned to death in view of scores of helpless onlookers. The caboose turned over, pinioning Miller beneath it. The red-hot stove was overturned on top of him and he was literally cooked to death. Edward Flynn, a brakeman, was horribly burned in an attempt to rescue Miller, but will recover. Capt. Miller's home was in Ashland, Ky. The body was taken to Lexington.

ON THE WAY TO PRISON.

Alleged Burglar Jumps From a Train, But Is Recaptured.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 31.—On the way to the reformatory, John Bohn, the leader of alleged burglars, jumped from the train. He was pursued by one of the deputies and after a chase of nearly two hours was recaptured in the rafters of a barn. Bohn and his companions were finally placed behind the walls of the reformatory.

Want Attorney Sharpe Impeached.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 31.—A delegation from Whitley county, headed by Rev. H. H. Hibbs, Walker Mason and Prof. Woods, appeared before a caucus of republican legislators and urged that steps be taken by the legislture to impeach Commonwealth's Attorney J. N. Sharpe, of Whitley county.

Strike May Delay Printing.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 31.—The half dozen printers employed on legislative bills at the printing plant of George A. Lewis here struck, after joining the Typographical union, and it is feared there will be further delay in printing bills for the two houses.

To Purchase Crab Orchard Springs.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 31.—A bill was introduced in the senate appropriating $42,000 and appointing commissioners to purchase the Crab Orchard Springs property for the state to be used as a home for idiots, epileptics and harmless incurable lunatics.

Two Young Men Arrested.

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 31.—C. O. Decker and H. M. Newport, prominent young men of Murray, Ky., were arrested at the instance of Post Office Inspector Kline, who charges them with operating a green goods scheme at Cullman, Ala.

Wheeler Memorial Services.

Nicholasville, Ky., Jan. 31.—John Morgan Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held memorial services at the Christian church in honor of Gen. Joseph Wheeler. Drs. E. W. McCorkle and W. F. Taylor made short addresses.

Orders To Dsband Militia Company.

Middlesboro, Ky., Jan. 31.—Orders were received from Gov. Beckham by Capt. Almrecht, of the local military company, disbanding the company here. This company has been on duty since the 2d of November last.

Bandit Rasouli is reported as again on the warpath in search of wealthy men to hold for ransom.

A Menace to Health

Kidney trouble is an insidious danger, and many people are victims of a serious malady before the symptoms are recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure corrects irregularities and strengthens and builds up the kidneys, and it should be taken at the first indication of kidney trouble, as it is impossible to have good health if the kidneys are deranged. Sold by R C. Stockton.
